

Casio advocates the philosophy “Support Classroom with Technology”
 Casio supports teachers and students with a total education solution.

Support Classroom with Technology

Educational Information (WEW)

Worldwide Education Website
 Website that provides information on products, materials, and services

Software

Effective workshop and activities preparation

Education Tools

Educational Information (WES)

Worldwide Education Service
 Web service that uses QR Codes

Science and Technology Education

Data-logger can be used with graphic calculators and is effective for both mathematics education and science and technology education.

Educational Resources

Activities

Textbook

Support materials for teachers and students, including instructions in the effective use of scientific calculators for educational purposes